GOVERNMENT DECIDES

After Consultation That Best
Policy Is to Limit Powers
in Peace Parley

JAPAN'S QUESTION PROPER

Has Right to Ask Information Concerning Scope of Near East Discussion

WASHINGTON, July 15.—President Harding and his cabinet today decided that for the present only the five allied powers and China will be invited to participate in the forthcoming disarmament conference, it was announced at the white house today.

There is some embarrassment to the administration in connection with the desire of other powers to come into the parley, but thus far it has been deemed best to limit the conference.

Japan's request for information concerning the scope of the near eastern discussion is entirely legitimate, it was stated, and the administration does not wish it to be understood that the inviting nation plans to outline agenda for the conference, but anticipates that this will be a matter of negotiation for the powers concerned.

It is the belief of the administration that Japan will be at the conference table when the conference meets. The date of the conference will be announced in the near future, but President Harding is anxious for the armistice day date.

Marshall Foch will be in this country at that time and might be the guest of the administration.

SET FORTH NEW SCOPE OF CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Japan's reluctance to take part in an unrestricted discussion of far eastern affairs, but anticipates that this will be a matter of negotiation for the powers concerned.

Details of the latest American representation to the Tokyo government were not disclosed but they are held by officials here to be sufficiently definite to permit of a comprehensive reconsideration of the whole subject by the Japanese government. Officials looking forward to the result with entire confidence. Although holding to its firm belief that far eastern and Pacific problems are linked closely with any effort to reduce armaments, the position of this government is understood to be that the important object after all, is to get the powers together around a council table where each is willing to speak and act in entire frankness in the interest of mutual understanding. The feeling here is that once that object has been attained an agreement easily will be reached. The Japanese government, provided none of the powers have their own hands before the conference begins.

TRIAL OPENS MONDAY

Spectators at Prosecution of Black
Sax Given When Jury Is Completed

CHICAGO, July 15.—The jury which will decide the guilt or innocence of the Chicago White Sox players and others indicted on conspiracy charges in connection with the alleged throwing of the 1919 world series was completed today. Actual trial of the men will begin Monday.

The first panel of four jurors was sworn in late today amid cheering from spectators and thousands of the kind which greets a ninth-inning rally by the home team.

More than two weeks had been taken up in selecting the jurors. Approximately 600 persons were questioned by state and defense attorneys.

The jury is made up of two clerks, two machine men, telephone repairman, a stationary engineer, the foreman of a motor company, a steel worker, a salesman, a florist, a hydraulic press operator, and the foreman of a stock yards. The jury is all but two are married and their ages range from 30 to 47. All held their understood baseball and league rules, but none has ever played professional or professional baseball, and none is a student of the game, or of the "fan" type.

Guides' English Won Him Notice Of Mrs. Stillman

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., July 15.—Fred Beardsley, fluent English speaker, who could speak English, won the notice of Mrs. Stillman, who is the son of a wealthy Buffalo manufacturer, was positive under cross examination, it was said, of the dates he had seen Mr. and Mrs. Stillman together at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. Stillman, in the months preceding the death of Guy Stillman. He said that the night before one of his visits he had attended a ball given in New York by the Canadian guides.

He was asked by Colonel Rand, counsel for Stillman, if he considered himself a poet or a versifier.

"I suppose you had better call me a versifier, I published my poems at my own expense," was the reply.

Hearings in the divorce suit will be resumed here July 25.
